KENNEY: Q. Okay. We'll go ahead and get started here. Sir, I'd like to ask you to please state your name. A. Lorin Hanks. Q. And have you ever given deposition testimony before? A. Never. Q. All right. I'll just go over a few ground rules for you. I'll be asking some questions today, and some of them you may want to answer with a "yes" or a "no" rather than nods or "uh-huhs." The court reporter there is taking a record of everything you say, so it may be a little bit difficult to understand nods and "uh-huhs." So if you wouldn't mind just answering verbally with yesses or nos. And if you don't understand that you're under oath, just as you would be if you were in court? I'll repeat that, sir.

2	on page 75, it appears to be a series of Equifax reports.	2	Is this the same letter that was sent each
3	THE WITNESS: Yes.	3	month?
4	Q. (BY MR. KENNEY:) Did you have a chance to	4	A. Yes. There's two versions of the letter, but
5	review these Equifax reports as you were assisting	5	essentially it's very similar, the letter that goes out
6	Mr. Daugherty with his credit repair?	6	every time.
7	A. Yes.	7	Q. Okay. And are these pages 1 and 2, are they
8	Q. Okay. All right. And these documents after you	8	the different versions, or is this the same version?
9	received them or created them, were they obtained at your	9	A. They are two different versions oh, excuse

15	A. Yes.	15	Q. (BY MR. KENNEY:) Do you have a second version
16	Q. All right. So I'd like to start with pages 1	16	that is available?
17	and 2. And these appear to be the same letter. And	17	A. Yeah. I'm actually looking at it. The only
18	going back to what I believe we marked as Exhibit 3,	18	difference is there is a handwritten dispute of a tax
19	there's a list of dates in which a letter was mailed.	19	lien.
20	Do you see that?	20	MR. ROGERS: If you need, we can have that
21	A. I do.	21	marked.
22	Q. And are these the dates that these letters here	22	MR. KENNEY: Well, I don't think I have that
23	in Exhibit 4, Nos. 1 and 2, correlate with?	23	copy in front of me. But if you could provide that to
24	A. Yes.	24	me, I would appreciate that.
25	Q. Okay. And it appears it's roughly the same	25	Is that something you would be able to provide?
25	Q. Okay. And it appears it's foughtly the same	23	is that something you would be able to provide:
